

Legalis advocaten focuses on five areas of law:

Corporate

TRANSPORTATION

Insolvency

International

Traffic

TRANSPORTATION

- CMR: rights and obligations of each carrier, consignor and cargo interests
- CMR waybill: editorial obligations, content, consequences
- Driving and rest periods: criminal defence
- ADR: criminal defence
- Collection of freight charges
- Liability and legal hedging in case of storage and transshipment of goods
- Applicable law in international transport and organisation of international transport.
- Technical regulations of vehicles: criminal defence
- Overloading: criminal defence and civil consequences
- Decree on axle loads: criminal defence and civil consequences
- Cargo insurance and cargo safety: criminal defence and civil consequences.
- Mileage charges: disputes with authorities and service providers
- Traffic and road code: all forms of criminal defence and civil redress
- Transport contracts: drafting depending on the point of view of the carrier, the consignor or the cargo interests
- Employment regulations for carriers
- Flagging out and foreign companies
- Eurovignette and road tax
- Employment law in the transport sector: employment, dismissal, urgent reason, record sheets
- Criminal defence before foreign courts
- Transport license: application, assistance in case of revocation, settlement of guarantees, problems of transport manager
- KPIs and SLAs between consignors and carriers

- Practical elaboration of intermodal transport in terms of insurance, contractual elaboration of intermodal transport
- Recovery of fines on drivers if provided for in the employment regulations, adaptation of employment regulations in this respect
- Advising and litigating for goods claims under all forms of transport: road, air, river, sea, rail
- Detention, demurrage of containers
- Drafting storage and transshipment agreements, warehousing

Contact

 Eersels 56, 3980 Tessenderlo

 tel. + 32 (0) 13 67 12 01
fax + 32 (0) 13 67 23 45

 info@legalis.be